Subventions

Value: Up to $750

Due Date: On a rolling basis from July 1\textsuperscript{st} 2023 to June 30\textsuperscript{th} 2024, or until funds are depleted

Description: The HI will make available a limited number of subventions up to $750 to assist full-time tenured and tenure-track, or other faculty eligible for a research release, in any Humanities unit from any ASU campus.

ASU humanities faculty with subvention costs for single-authored and co-authored works in any language, including creative works (novels, books of essays or poetry). These funds are designed to support those whose publishers make an explicit requirement of subvention funding.

Eligible expenses also include those that, if not funded, would prevent the publication from going forward, such as extraordinary printing costs for:

• Illustrations
• Maps
• Cover art
• Indexing or copyright permissions, and rights.

Ineligible expenses include:

• Costs for publishing textbooks
• Costs for hiring an outside editor

Criteria for the subventions include:

• Publisher’s request for subvention (please include publisher’s email in your application)
• Stature of the press
• Scholarly record of the applicant (please include a short detailing the past 3 years of publications and other research output)

Application Instructions: Please fill out the questions below (in the textboxes and tables). Once completed please convert this document into a PDF and email it to: HumanitiesInstitute@asu.edu with the subject line: ‘your full name - HI SUBVENTION APPLICATION’.
APPLICATION:

Author’s statement about the significance of the publication or creative work to their career and field; list past H1 subvention support, if applicable (1 page)

Information about the press, including names and book titles of its 2-3 leading authors (1/2 page max)

Scholarly record of applicant (no more than 2 pages)

Include and append to this word document, documents from the press:

- Acceptance letter for the manuscript
- Written policy about or stated requirement for subvention funding
Applications will be considered by the HI’s executive committee. Anticipated response time: 2-3 weeks.

Terms & Conditions:
Recipients of funding must agree to:

- Recognize the HI’s support in the acknowledgments section of the book
- Provide the HI with a copy of the published book for the HI Library